Clive's Comments

I am finding myself getting quite angry at what the politicians and bureaucrats are doing to our society. The Victorian Labour Government has to be the worst of the lot. Our state is bankrupt and probably trading whilst insolvent. Be it Daniel Andrews, Jacinta Allan or their senior ministers there is just no sense of consideration of the people of this state.

We are in a financial hole and it is getting deeper. It seems there is no-one that wants the Rail Loop, there isn't anyone who honestly believes we can afford it yet the government will not stop. A good friend who has just turned fifty says that he feels he is watching what was once a great city in a strong state in free and balanced country decline into what Paul Keating called a Banana Republic.

We live in a country that used to have a great work ethic and behaved as one nation. Currently nearly 30% of Australians are born overseas and almost 50% have one or more parents born overseas. We are one of the most diverse nations on earth. Not ethnically diverse but culturally diverse due to place of birth. Close to a quarter of families speak a language other than English in the home. When I travelled around the world I was proud of this and proud to be an Australian.

I believe in an Australia that accepts all people from all races, religions and cultural beliefs. A country where all these people unite as one nation with a single purpose. A nation where we all have equal opportunities to live the lives we aspire to...

...A place where we look after those that do not have enough, where violence is abhorred. With an economic system that allows some to run their own businesses whilst others can maintain a simpler life working in the private sector or the government sector. A system that rewards those that work hard and try to build a better life for themselves and their families without punishing those who choose to do less.

I am sad to see that we are drifting away from this. Our state is a financial mess and they see the best way out is to tax the heck out of anyone who has earned a little bit more whilst rewarding anyone in a union based job. How dare they give every public servant a $5600 bonus whilst the rest of us struggle and those with assets get taxed beyond belief. How dare they negotiate pay deals with unions that commit to annual payraises well above inflation and well over what we can afford to pay.

The fiascos are ongoing. It started with the $1.4 billion loss on East West link. A road we desperately need. Then the West Gate Tunnel project that was never costed nor tendered. The Suburban Rail Loop that has never been budgeted for, wasn't tested and still hasn't been funded. The constant over runs in the hundreds of millions of dollars in all 'big build' projects, that we now find were driven by a corrupt union. The rail tunnel that goes under a hospital and is now stopping then hospital from using its multi-million dollar equipment. They were told eight years ago this would happen. A public service that is now double what it was a decade ago. Don't forget the Commonwealth Games fiasco!!!

We have hospitals that are so overwhelmed they have to use ambulance drivers to baby sit the critically ill patients. Meanwhile we have hundreds of qualified paramedics who can't get work due to lack of funding. According to the Naplan results we are well underperforming at key levels of education. Investors are leaving the real estate market in droves that is aggravating the shortage of rental properties. Increased taxes, increased compliance costs and reduced protections along with higher interest rates and rising property prices makes investing in rental properties a frightening option.

Our road system is a dangerous mess with potholes and collapsing road services becoming the norm. Major roads are full of potholes that are marked with yellow paint rather than repaired. 50% of our road toll is in regional Victoria – coincidence? The youth crime wave is scary. The numbers of teenagers conducting violent crimes is worrying enough but the level of the violence is awful. The offenders are not being incarcerated because they will suffer in the future and may come out worse. No consideration for the poor victims who are, at worst dying or at the least suffering ongoing fears.

This is not all of the problems we face as a state and are replicated in other states but they are the worst. I apologise for being so angry but this is no longer Liberal/Labour/Greens etc. It is the constant disdain for the hard working people of Australia who pay taxes, work hard and are made a mockery of. We must return to a single nation made up of people who are equal in all aspects of opportunity and legal standing. The government in Northern Territory just changed and the new leader is promising "The territory of tomorrow will be better than the territory of today." It is time our state and federal leaders promise "The Australia of tomorrow will be better than the Australia of today"
